

Graduate Admission Policies

Admission to Bryan College of Health Sciences is based on demonstrated evidence of academic ability and an interest in and aptitude for health sciences. Bryan College of Health Sciences is committed to providing opportunities for all persons and an environment free from discrimination, harassment, or retaliation. Bryan College of Health Sciences does not discriminate on the basis of race, ethnicity, color, national origin or ancestry, religion, sex, genetic information, gender identity or expression, age, marital or family status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, disability, veteran status, source of income, or any other protected class recognized by state or federal law in its programs, activities, employment and admission.

The College complies with all applicable federal, state, and local laws relating to equal opportunity including the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disability Act (ADA), as applicable.

Bryan College of Health Sciences is committed to providing an environment conducive to learning for all students, including students with disabilities. Accommodations are provided in accordance with section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. If you are a student with a disability who needs or may need reasonable accommodations, please contact the Academic Support Services Director/ADA Coordinator, dss@bryanhealthcollege.edu.
