

Academic and Administrative Policies

The President and the Faculty have the responsibility and authority to establish and maintain standards of ethical, personal and professional conduct for students in the College. It is assumed that each student who enrolls at Bryan College of Health Sciences is in agreement with the philosophy, goals and values and will cooperate in furthering these purposes by adhering to regulations.