

Master's Thesis and Doctoral Dissertation Formats

The Master's Thesis and Doctoral Dissertation is a reflection of the student, advisor, and Bryan College of Health Sciences. Therefore, it is expected that the work be of highest quality. Format and style of thesis or dissertation vary between disciplines and are to be determined by each individual program. Refer to specific academic department student handbooks for stylistic requirements.