

Holds

Holds may be placed on a student's account for the following reasons:

- Registration holds prevent students from registering for future terms or adding courses in the current semester.
- Students with transcript holds will be unable to view their unofficial transcript in the Student Portal and their transcripts (official or unofficial) will not be released until the holds have been cleared.