

Philosophy

Distance Education works collaboratively with faculty to create high quality learning experiences for students using reliable modern technologies in course design and delivery processes. The formats (online or hybrid) are grounded in sound pedagogical practices to maximize student-faculty interaction driven by the students' learning needs.