

EDUC984 : Doctoral Seminar II

The doctoral seminar is an interactive venue for information and support with other doctoral students engaged in the dissertation process. In this second of two doctoral seminars, students exchange ideas and experiences regarding data analysis, reporting of results, and strategies for completion related to their specific research questions and designs. The seminar includes interaction with scholars who are experienced in students' research designs and methods.

Credits 1

Prerequisite Courses

EDUC981

EDUC982

EDUC990

Co-Requisite Courses

EDUC995