

NRAN861 : Clinical Practicum

Students will engage in supervised clinical practice that involves basic and advanced anesthesia skills. Emphasis is given to patient assessment, anesthetic planning and implementation, airway management, and management of patient populations in all risk categories across the age spectrum. General, regional, and sedation techniques are included.

Credits 1

Prerequisite Courses

NRAN856

Co-Requisite Courses

NRAN860